

Drama Elective

Task: Extended Improvisation

Student:

Date:

Criteria	Vocal Skills	Physical Skills	Commitment to Role	Improvisational Skills
E	You did not achieve any of the descriptors below.	You did not achieve any of the descriptors below.	You did not achieve any of the descriptors below.	You did not achieve any of the descriptors below.
D	Your vocal delivery was difficult to understand and lacked variation.	There was little use of facial expression gesture and body language during your performance.	You made a minor attempt to develop your role but there was no level of believability.	You showed a lot of hesitation and did not really help to progress the improvisation.
C	Your vocal delivery was mostly able to be understood and had some variation.	You used some appropriate facial expressions, gestures and body language during your performance.	Your role-play was evident in places but not sustained throughout the performance.	You showed some hesitation but contributed in some way to the progress of the improvisation.
B	Your vocal delivery was able to be understood and varied enough to sustain some interest from the audience.	You used a variety of appropriate facial expressions, gestures and body language during your performance.	Your role-play was clearly established throughout the performance but lacked sustained focus.	There was a little hesitation at times but you made major contributions to the progress of the improvisation.
A	Your vocal delivery was clearly understood and you sustained the interest of the audience with a range of appropriate vocal dynamics.	You engaged the audience with a broad use of facial expressions, gestures and body language.	Your role-play was sustained and clearly focused throughout the performance.	You displayed confidence in improvisation and your creative responses were a key factor in the improvisation's progress.